CASTAWAYS TRAVEL KNOWS DESIRE RESORTS (DESIRE RIVERIA MAYA AND PEARL)

We visit the resorts on a regular basis and know a management, owners and staff well. We know the adult travel segment very well and have the expertise to help you get the best vacation possible. Castaways sponsors groups to Desire Resorts several times a year and we know the other clothing optional resorts as well from years of booking and travel to the most popular clothing optional destinations worldwide. That means we know what makes each of the resorts special and the kind of experience you can expect.

Both Desire Pearl and Desire Riviera Maya, located just south of the Cancun airport, are couples only, clothing optional in the relaxation and sports areas. Both are all inclusive which means all meals, bar drinks, snacks, tips, entertainment, activities, theme nights, taxes and service charges are included.

Desire Resorts is a well-developed brand with years of experience and a unique position amongst their competitors. Desire Resorts fit neatly into a category between Hidden Beach Resort near Cancun which offers a milder, clothing optional vibe and Hedonism in Jamaica which is a more hard-core party, sexual atmosphere. It's a terrific choice for those new to this type of vacation or experienced adult travelers because of its pressure-free atmosphere.

To help you decide if Desire is the right choice for your special vacation, Castaways has developed a scale for their most popular destinations based on three factors:

- 1  Stars - the measure of quality
- 2  Dollars -a relative scale of cost
- 3  Spice - the scale from nudity to sensual to sexual

FOR DESIRE'S TWO RESORTS WE CAN APPLY THE FOLLOWING SCALE:

 Desire Riviera Maya has been recently renovated with expanded restaurants and a swim up bar. However, Desire Resorts are not the Four Seasons-- class. Desire Pearl is a bit more upscale but both resorts are quite nice with Desire Riviera Maya known for a slightly more sexually oriented atmosphere.*

 For cost. You get what you pay for as both resorts are closely managed with excellent service, dining and a fun adult and sexy atmosphere, especially appealing to women, in our opinion.

 For spice. 4 out of 5 - Where Hedo tends to be more sexual, Desire Resorts is more sensual and invites you to set aside your inhibitions and explore your fantasies comfortably. We rate Desire Resorts as super sensual.

THE WHAT

Desire Resorts are all-inclusive, tropical beach resorts 20 – 30 minutes south of Cancun that deliver a high-quality, sensual couples only, experience. Desire operates two resorts in the area. Desire Rivera Maya is the original resort, and Desire Pearl is a newer resort which features a higher luxury ambiance. Both resorts have a nude beach.

Desire Resorts are a uniquely balanced combination of elegance, style, sensuality, and sexuality that make it an ideal vacation for open-minded couples. The owners have been managing Desire Resorts for many years, and they are skilled operators who know how to throw a party, maintain an excellent staff and provide a superior experience for their guests.

Desire is truly a “something for everybody” resort. The percentage of return visitors is very high. This is a testament to location, good management, and value. The majority of Castaways clients that visit Desire return more than once. Trip Advisor participants continually rate Desire Resorts highly at the top of the list for properties in the Riviera Maya zone.

WHO ENJOYS IT THE MOST:

Desire Resorts are for those looking for a sensual, high-quality couples-only travel destination. These resorts are more elegant than Hedo with somewhat less of a sexual, party hard "edge".

Clothing optional couples find the sensuality component high and "hard-core" lifestyle travelers may want a larger suite with plunge pool to create a wild party atmosphere or to travel with a like-minded group. We've noticed Desire Pearl seems to attract more of a balance between both fun loving nudist couples and lifestyle couples...and both groups get along well. Desire Riviera Maya seems a bit more lifestyle oriented. Specific groups that visit Desire Resorts tend to be more lifestyle-oriented as well.

You will find a fairly broad age range of couples that enjoy Desire Resorts so don't be shy!

WHERE IS DESIRE LOCATED:

Desire Resorts are on the Caribbean side of Mexico in the state of Quintana Roo with Cancun to the north and Playa del Carmen to the south. This slice slice of the Mexican Caribbean coast is known as the Riviera Maya. It is a perfect destination with turquoise waters, white sandy beaches, and the startling colors only found in tropical locations. The area offers travelers a wide variety of activities if you wish to leave your resort.

WHEN TO GO:

The prime season is when this part of the Caribbean is at its best during spring and fall, but any time is good to go. January - March can be a little cool at night but days are usually warm and toasty. August and September are more humid. During the off-season (summer and fall), rates are value-priced

THE DESIRE EXPERIENCE

Most travelers arrive at the Cancun International airport. Your experience starts when if you look out the window you will see the turquoise waters and white sand beaches of the region. You just know you are in for a unique experience.

At the airport, you connect with your airport transfer and begin about a 20-minute drive away from the hustle and bustle of Cancun, towards the lush green jungle that hugs the coast of the Riviera Maya.

If you do leave the resort, there is the glamor and shopping of Cancun. If you prefer quaint, the town of Playa del Carmen beckons. If you visit Desire Pearl, the small town of Puerto Morelos is less than a mile south and offers guests a fun visit to a little village with a classic town square surrounded by quaint shops, restaurants and fun little bistros. Make sure you visit some of the side streets for more discoveries and bargains. There are opportunities to visit ruins in Tulum or take a ferry to Cozumel for incredible scuba diving.

This stunning location is home to Desire Resorts' two destinations. Both share architectural beauty nestled in a spectacular beach setting that is all at once, beautiful, relaxing and sensual. No matter how many nights you booked, you are instantly left wishing it was longer.

The original resort, Desire Riviera Maya has 114 rooms and is based on the same concept as Desire Pearl. This resort is more compact compared to Desire Pearl. Desire Riviera Maya has Garden View, Ocean View, Jacuzzi Suites as well as Passion Suites which are similar to Penthouse suites at Desire Pearl.

Desire Riviera Maya's hot tub is smaller than at Desire Pearl but the activity level at Desire Riviera Maya can be a bit livelier since guests are in a more intimate, smaller resort layout. Very Lifestyle friendly so the disco and hot tub at night can get pretty "steamy."

Desire Pearl, the newest addition, has 88 rooms and Masters suites including 7 Penthouses, each with its own plunge pool. The rooms are gorgeous. It's more upscale, spacious, on the beach, all inclusive and adult couples only. Clothing is optional at the beach/pool/hot tub. Guests dress for dinner and clothing is required elsewhere. The resort is Lifestyle friendly so the disco and hot tub at night can get pretty "steamy" and sexy. NOTE: If a group or groups are not in house, Desire Pearl can be pretty laid back.

At either resort, do not miss the hot tubs. Desire Pearl has one of the largest we've seen. Enough said!

THEME NIGHTS AND PARTIES

Remember we described Desire as super sensuous? Well, after dark the naughty side comes out to play! Theme nights and parties are fun in every adult-oriented resort, BUT, things at Desire they are probably more delicious than anywhere else. So, dress (or undress) yourself up and let your sensuality go wild!

In our opinion, about half the guests enjoy the evening's theme in costume so take this chance to let it all hang out....no one at home knows what you're doing or wearing anyway!

Here is a listing of popular theme nights:
(themes subject to change without notice)

- Desire University – School girls and naughty professors
- Desire Mansion – Playboy bunnies and pimps
- Burlesque – Corsets and gangsters
- Sexy Uniforms
- Mysterious Masquerade – Masks and lingerie
- Dress to Impress
- Glow Party – Neon and sexy white

We suggest you plan to participate in these nights. They are fun, edgy and you will miss out on the fun if you don't.

FANTASY MENU

Desire Resorts offers something that no other resort offers. It's their Fantasy Menu. In other words, if you've fantasized about it, they'll create it for you! So dig down into your deepest desires and book a once-in-a-lifetime, personalized fantasy...or two.

Here are some examples of the menus at Desire Riviera Maya and Pearl:

- “Deliciously” Erotic – Ever dreamed of being covered in chocolate and having your lover (or lovers) lick every bit off your body? You can lie back and enjoy while being fed chocolate covered strawberries or simply melt into the passion of the moment.
- Private Play Room – How about an affair only it's with your lover? Bring new friends and couples to this very private play room filled with sensuous music and mood lighting. For up to 4 couples...now we're talking exciting!

- Lights, Camera, Action! Now here's one you can take home. Have you ever fantasized about being filmed creating your most intimate moments? A professional (and very discrete) videographer will shoot you in a sensuous setting of your choice and give you the edited DVD.
- Private Romantic Dinner on the Beach – A four-course dinner, a mystic beach, the moon and stars, tropical breezes, sensual music, sparkling wine and your lover...wow!
- Sex on the Beach – A perfect love bed, the shimmering, moonlit water, sparkling wine and chocolate covered strawberries. Just bring your desire!
- Foursome Erotic Massage – Here's a fantasy date for sure. A private Jacuzzi, massage for four, two bottles of sparkling wine. Now after that massage, what would you do with your hot, sexy friends?

WHAT TO BRING

This is an opportunity to pack light but with a fun twist. There are some basics to consider.

Dress is casual to upscale tropical, with beachwear the norm from thongs to shorts. Nice shorts, tees and Hawaiian shirts for the guys and light summer dresses, shorts and tees for the ladies with sandals and flip flops. Clothing is required for restaurants, bars, the spa, the gym and shops and there are opportunities to dress to impress.

For the fine dining restaurants in both resorts, guys bring a pair of long pants and collared shirt with nice shoes....no flip flops or Sketcher sandals.

- Guys: No ties, no coats, required but lightweight pants make for a great way to top off your theme costumes. Look at the Theme Nights section to get an idea of clothing to bring.
- Gals: Bring your glitter, spike heels, and outfits for theme nights. It's your time to express your sensual, sexy, sultry or that wild side that's dying to get out!
